Properties like this are few and far between! Land this close to Sylvan Lake with Highway exposure are endless! Are you looking for an investment now, but also pay huge dividends in the future? This property is zoned FD(Future Designation District) which means you could build a destination wedding venue, gas station, restaurant, carwash, or how about an RV storage lot with separate storage containers? Of course, you would have to have city approval for what ever your entrepreneurial desires would be. The history of this property is remarkable as the home was once a school back in its day! The home in my opinion is still very structurally sound and it has 3 beds and 2 baths and one of the baths boasts a tub and sink from the Banff Springs Hotel. There are numerous details of the days past and the home is flooded by all the natural light! With a little love, this property could be restored to its future glory. So many possibilities…
